

Edgewater Projects is a maritime consulting firm located in Washington, DC. With over 20 years of industry experience, offering comprehensive maritime consultation services for a vast array of waterfront development projects. Edgewater is committed to delivering unparalleled client support including site specific project approaches, permitting, budgeting, planning & construction scheduling.

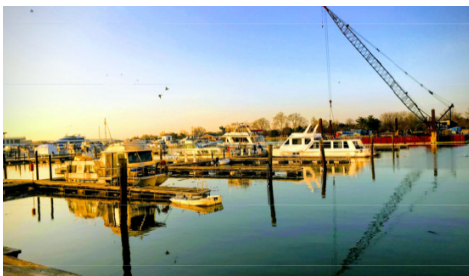

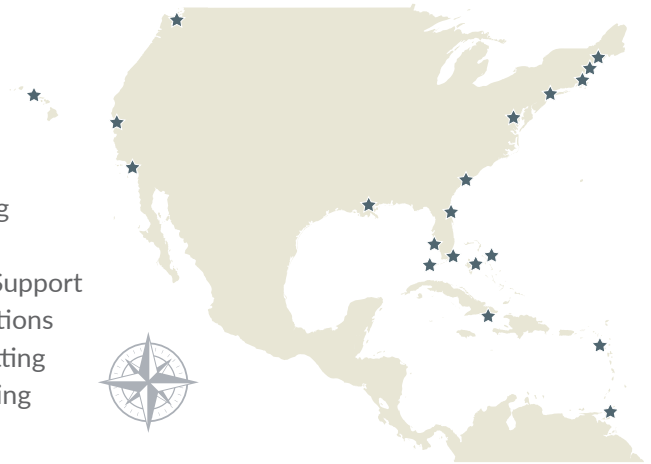

Design Services

- Marina Planning & Design
- Pile Supported Piers
- Wharves
- Floating Homes & Buildings
- Bulkheads & Seawalls
- Flood Prevention
- Shoreline Protection
- Mooring & Breasting Dolphins
- Fender Systems

Project Implementation

- Owner's Representative
- Project Management
- Construction Management
- Concept Design and Planning
- Contracting
- Proformas & Underwriting Support
- Above & Underwater Inspections
- Federal, State & Local Permitting
- Peer Review/Value Engineering

Edgewater's founder, Michael Bruce, is a registered Professional Engineer in DC, Maryland and Virginia. Mr. Bruce's career began as an Engineer-Diver and has evolved through a broad scope of roles encompassing nearly all aspects of waterfront development including; Engineer of Record, Development Manager, Project Manager, Construction Manager, Maritime Operations Director and Resident Engineer. His wide-ranging experience affords Edgewater a unique perspective in planning, cost estimating, design and means & methods of maritime construction for complex waterfront projects.